Building Beautiful Custom Homes Since 1952

Three Ways to Build with Armstrong

Turn-Key Custom Construction

Armstrong will take charge of your entire project, from start to finish, then hand you the key. After you have decided on your house design and selected your amenities, you can sit back, relax and watch your new home go up.

Owner-Builder

Over the years, many of our clients have realized significant savings as owner-builders. It's easier than you think. We provide design and drafting support along with a breakdown of costs to aid in obtaining financing. We assist you in choosing qualified, experienced subcontractors that have worked with us in the past.

Remodeling

Armstrong has transformed hundreds of older houses into spacious contemporary homes with greater livability. Older homes come alive, with additional living area, contemporary styling, and energy efficient products that save you money and increase your home's resale value.
